

Computer Classes

at Woodland
Community Library

Computer classes are FREE to everyone
with a library card

All classes are for people who are familiar with using the mouse.

▪ Intro to the Internet

Find your way around the World Wide Web. Learn to use search engines and web addresses. Become familiar with standard website layouts to simplify finding information or conducting business.

▪ Free E-mail

What is e-mail? Find out here!

Sign up for a free, web-based e-mail account and learn how to use it.

Registration is required!

Call 225-2115 to register, OR visit the Woodland Community
Library to sign up.

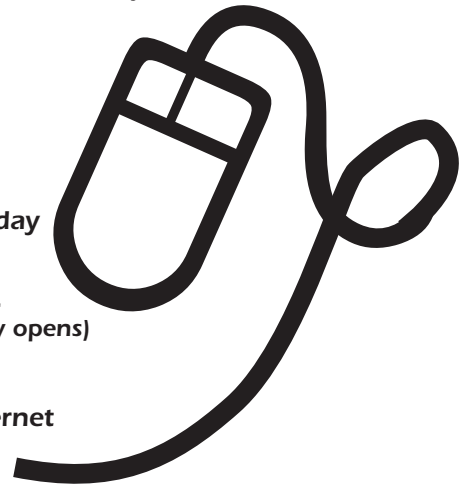

Class Times:

2nd & 4th Monday
of every month

9:00-11:00 a.m.
(before the library opens)

Starting April 9:
Intro to the Internet
and April 23:
Free E-mail

(No class on May 28 or December 24)

Woodland Community Library

770 Park Street
360.225.2115

Fort Vancouver
Regional Library District

2007

www.fvrl.org

Accessible

Please call the library for other accommodations.

Library events are free and open to the public!